Thoughts from Rev. John McNaughton

I began writing these notes on 3rd September, the anniversary of that Sunday in September 1940 when our nation had no choice but to declare war on that appalling regime in Germany which was continuing to inflict acute suffering on millions of people across Europe.

My thoughts were interrupted by a telephone call. A courteous recorded voice informed me that a burst water main would restrict, or even cut off my water supply! I realised what a lot I took for granted! When I was serving in the desert I thought I would never again turn on the tap at home without saying "thank you". Truth is, I was so happy to be home it did not even cross my mind! I am ashamed to admit it.

Thank God for the wonderful people who are trying to bring pure water to the millions who lack it.

What a lot we all take for granted. At least the season for Harvest Thanksgiving Services reminds us of the miracle of those millions of seeds that somehow grow into little plants and go on to produce "our daily bread" thanks to the hard work of farmers and bakers. For very many of us, gratitude leads to God.

G.K. Chesterton, the author of the Father Brown detective stories, wrote long ago of just how much a single day meant to him. "Why am I allowed two days", he wrote. In gratitude he turned toward the God he had not known, and went on to live as a devout christian.

We all find it too easy to forget to say "thank you". Perhaps this is a good time for a rethink ?

South Dalton Ladies Club

A large group (14) of us went to eat in Papa's fish and chip restaurant in Willerby. We enjoyed a good natter and 'catch-up' and the air was punctuated by shrieks of laughter! Needless to say, as the wine and water flowed, so did the conversation. Anything from Brexit, the weather, to the realisation that there are only just over 100 days to Christmas!

The restaurant staff were splendid, easily coping with our varied orders with good humour and patience. An excellent evening was had by all and many thanks to Glynis for organising everything!

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, 6th October 2016 at 7.30pm and a representative from Humberside Police will be speaking.

Bletchley Park Talk

Mrs Jo Dunn from Beverley came again to the Village Hall to give a talk on the Wartime memories of working at Bletchley Park helping to solve the Enigma Code. This time it was for the Market Weighton Rotary Club and was followed by a fish and chip supper. The event was a great success with approximately 100 people attending. The comments received were all extremely complementary and the event raised £632.50 for the church funds.

Many Thanks to Mrs Dunn. Thank you to Robert Coates who ran the bar also Jan Nettleton and the ladies who did the tea in the kitchen.
