Celebrations.

Harvest Festival is a time for celebrations and to offer thanks for blessings received. This year we have good reason as we celebrate the return of our very old friend Rev. John McNaughton to conduct the service. We also extend a particular welcome to Rt. Rev. Bishop Alison White, Bishop of Hull, who will preach the sermon. This is the first visit of Bishop Alison to our church and the first Bishop to attend for more than thirty years.

In 1983, Bishop White entered Cranmer Hall, an Anglican theological college attached to St John's College, Durham. She became a deaconess in 1986. She was ordained deacon in 1987 and priest in 1994. She was a non-stipendiary minister in Chester le Street from 1986 to 1989; the Diocese of Durham's Adviser in Local Mission from 1989 to 1993; Director of Pastoral Studies at Cranmer Hall from 1993 to 1998; Director of Ordinands from 1998 to 2000; its Springboard Missioner from 2000 to 2004; and Adult Education Officer for the Diocese of Peterborough from 2005 to 2010.

Bishop White was a canon of Peterborough Cathedral from 2009 to 2010. In that year she became the priest-in-charge of St James' Church, Riding Mill, Northumberland, and adviser to the Diocese of Newcastle for spirituality and spiritual direction.

In March 2015, it was announced that Alison White was to become the next Bishop of Hull. On 3 July 2015, she was consecrated as a bishop by John Sentamu, Archbishop of York, during a service at York Minster. She was the second woman to become a bishop in the Church of England; Libby Lane was the first. She was welcomed as Bishop of Hull on 6 July during a service at Holy Trinity Church, Hull.

South Dalton Ladies Club.

The evening was cancelled as several members were on holiday, which meant we were unable to make up the required number for a viable pottery painting session. We hope to arrange another evening at the workshop in the near future.

On Thursday October 3rd, Kevin Norris returns to tell us about his Three Glaciers Expedition in the Karakoram Mountains, Pakistan. Kevin will describe his journey from Islamabad along the Karakoram Highway into the remote mountains bordering Afghanistan and China to the village of Skardu. The expedition treks three glaciers and over a 6000 metre pass, offering a glimpse into the lives of people forging an existence in an alien environment.

Everyone is invited to join us in the village hall at 7.30pm, with coffee, tea and cake afterwards.

Thursday 7th November 2019 at 7.30pm - Games Night- release your inner child and play the games you may have played a long time ago! Join us for lots of laughter and refreshments.

Church Lights—Winter 2019

Due to popular demand the period of illumination will be increased for the coming winter from 27th October to 29th February 2020. Following the success of the floodlighting appeals during the past ten years the village hall committee are appealing for sponsorship and contributions towards the cost of the electricity used. We are asking people to sponsor a night for each of the dates given above on a first come first served basis with a minimum donation of £5.00 per night. You may wish to choose a date with some significance for you such as a birthday, or a special anniversary. If your chosen date has been taken we will allocate the nearest available one. If all dates have been taken the donation will be put towards the cost of the electricity consumed.

The official switching- on will take place on Sunday 27th October 2019 at 6.00pm followed by refreshments in the village hall. If you would like to donate food please contact Maureen Barnett, Jane Pearson-Moore or Giles Peacock.

Village Elder

Nonagenarian - Eric Wood

Perhaps the most recognisable man in the village, and who will talk endlessly of Tractors to Tricycles, Traction engines to Toyotas, Jeeps to Jowetts not to mention Motorbikes to Mondeos, is surprisingly modest. So much so that, with the approach of his 90th birthday in July, he made clear to his family that he “did not want any fuss”. The family promptly ignored him and secretly organised a birthday celebration! Mavis was one of the conspirators and made sure that on the appointed day he would take her to Beverley to engage in some innocent shopping. Not so. A canal boat, together with many family members and friends was waiting to take him on a cruise lasting several hours. The above picture shows Eric and Mavis enjoying the outing and proudly displaying his “Made in 1929” badge.

So a belated Happy Birthday to a delightful man, not forgetting his ever watchful “manager” Mavis, with our very best wishes.

P.S. Eric has assured me that he is about to start writing his memoirs - watch this space!
